PRICE ONE CENT.

YORK, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1894.

STRAUSS' MEMORY

Answer Many of Mr.

Goff's Questions.

Parkhurst and the Senators at War Over the Questioning of Supt. Byrnes.

tain, was placed on the Lexow witness

She said she had not spoken to her

MAYOR PISHER IS INTERESTED

She identified Policeman Wallenstein

Capt. Strauss was then called to the stand. He said he knew from the papers that he was called the "Original

Mr. Goff questioned him about an alleged row between President Martin and Supt. Byrnes, but Strauss said he in regard to orders issued on Election Day, 1892, and he said that Byrnes had

The first witness called by the Lexow paid $250 to Ward Man Burns, then of Capt. McLaughlin's Old Slip precinct, to secure protection from annoyance from the police while engaged in the construc-any stocks or bonds.

knew nothing about it.

distance was 150 feet.

tion of the Morse Building.

from the police.

having been paid.

Before the session begun, Dr. Parkhurst held a consultation with mem-

EX-INSPECTOR STEERS AND RIS PRIENDS.

as a relative of her husband.

stand shortly after noon to-day.

LAST EDITION.

A SAILOR'S AWFUL CRIME.

Killed His Wife and Himself in the Presence of Their Five Children.

THE BABY STARED IN TERROR.

Peterson's Jealous Rage Had Aroused All His Brutish Instincts.

TRAGEDY IN TRINITY'S SHADOW.

Touching Story Told by Thirteen-Year-Old Lily, the Eldest of the Orphans.

Charles Peterson, a brutal seaman murdered his wife, Ruth, in her kitchen, at 106 Trinity place, this morning, and then discharged his tardy duty to society by killing himself. The acts were performed in sight and sound of their five little children, and the whole tragedy is filled with elements that are heart-moving in the extreme. The scene was in a top corner room of a five-story tenument, wretched enough to belong to the rich church across the way, which, however, it does ot. There is a saloon on the ground floor and above a series of double flats of three coops each, filled with poor tilles of many women and more chil-

On the top floor, in the front, the Peterson family had lived for months. household rightfully consisted of Peterson, her five children, and ser estars-ip-law, Mrs. William Small and Armie McLaughlin, The hunband and father had forfeited his right to be there, and was an outcast.

Of this pitiful family the children fomprised Lily, thirteen years old; Lena, eight years old; Charlie, five years old; two years old, and Elizabeth, a frail little being born five weeks ago.

The mother and Annie McLaughlin scrubbed in the Astor Building, in Wall treet, and Mrs. Small was a temporary visitor from Harlem while her husband was away. Lily was the little mother of the flock while Mrs. Peterson was away at work, and a sweet and motherly thirty-eight years old, and his wife an stated about two weeks ago. The houses.

English woman, five years younger. He League gave all these until Dec. 20 to The sum of $55,000 was voted to pay met her while ashore i.. Liverpool fif- make their explanations. Barnie was the expense of acquiring the land for her well, provided for the children as they came and they were happy.

It was just about five years ago when his manner began to alter, and he reproved her for fancied acts of coquetry with other men. His jealousy grew upon him, and uron his return from every voyage, which he usually contrived to be short, he railled her with increasing bitterness. Blows frequently followed solding, and for the past few years he hailed every home-coming with a brutish attack upon his wife.

Last May he was sent to the island for three months for beating her. Upon his release in August he met her on the brailer and kicked and pounded her. Her brother-in-law, William Wall, fell upon him and pounded and kicked him in turn, until he slunk away. He returned gix weeks ago and kicked her into understand the beard and solding and the bearing her to the secret chamber, Barnie said however, that he did not come to New York to humble himself before the Board, nor did he reduces a bearing. He instance and skicked and pounded her. Her brother-in-law, William Wall, fell upon him and pounded and kicked him in turn, until he slunk away. He returned gix weeks ago and kicked her into understanding that more attendants and hour. A stendard over an hour. A stenda

THE MASSACRE AT PORT LEXOW.

(Sketched on the spot by an "Evening World" Artist.)

BARNIE IS STILL DEFIANT. ON SEVENCENTS ADAY GUP GHALLENGES AT AN EMD

Refuses to Humble Himself.

But He Talked to the National Board This Year's Appropriation is in for Over an Hour.

The meeting of the Board of Arbitraion of the National League to consider the cases of Billy Barnie and Fred Pfeffer, who were suspended by the plicity in the organization of the pro-met her while ashore it. Liverpool fifteen years ago. They were married and came to America a few months later. He followed the sea, and during the first three years together he kept her well, provided for the children as they came and they were happy.

It was just about five years ago when his manner began to alter, and he reproved her for fancied acts of coquetry with other men. His jealousy grew upon him, and upon his return from every make their explanations. Barnie was the expense of acquiring the land for Corlears Hook Park.

The Department of Charities and Correction was the first one taken up. Miss Royalle Butler was present, particularly to urge an increase in the appropriation for the care of the insane. President J.
J. Hanlon, of the Pennsylvania State league was given a hearing. He insinsane asylums. The Board allowed only with other men. His jealousy grew upon him, and upon his return from every

The weather forecast for the thirty-six hours ending at 8 P. M. to-morrow is as follows: Fair to-day and Friday; slightly warmer; southwest winds.
The following record shows the changes in the temperature during the morning hours, as indicated by the thermometer at Perry's pharmacy; S. A. M., 55/6 A. M., 55/8 A. M., 55/8 A. M., 55/13 M., 61

The Suspended Baseball Manager Short Rations Provided for the Lord Lonsdale Says There May Be City's Pauper Insane.

creased to $900,000.

the Board of Estimate.

The Board of Estimate and Apportion Young, Soden and Byrne, were present, roy, and among those in the room To-day's meeting would indicate that were Mrs. Francis P. Kinnicut, the the new association has met with fail street-cleaning reformer, and Mrs. ure, and the project has been abandoned. Frederick Rhinelander Jones, Mrs. Barnie and Pfeffer were suspended at William B. Rice, Miss Rosalie Butler the same time that Buckenburger, of and Dr. Wheelock. John A. McKim Pittsburg, was, The latter was rein- was also on hand to talk about lodging-

The resolutions of the Brooklyn Excise Commis-aloners to increase the liceuse fees to nearly double the present rates has caused consternation among the smoll saloon-keepers. Predictions were made this morning that the action of Mayor Schieron's Commissioners would furt the Republican party at the next election.

No More Races for the Trophy. American Yachtsmen Scored by the

This syndicate is comp yacht, the Giralda, built for him.

ient many of the members of those two ordered no electioneering within a Yacht Squadron. But it is a question if himself eventually and said that the English yachtsmen would approve of distance was 150 feet. such action.

the Americans' failure to accept our M. Stannought, a former agent of the challenge is that we are now too near Society for the Prevention of Crime. race, and only lost through an acci- Inspector regularly as to the work done

Starross, Slower frequently followed coolding, and for the past few years he halled every home-coming with a brutin stated upon his wife.

All the start of the start of the leisand for the past few years he halled every home-coming with a brutin stated upon his wife.

To three sounds for beauting the first of the leisand her. Upon his release in August he met her on the start and blicked and pounded her. Her start and blicked her into unit mu, until he shutk away. He returned six weeks age and Ricked her into unit will help the start of the star "I do not think there will be a race Stannought further said that he was next year for the America's Cup. The afraid to come to the city to testify, as whole thing has become a question for he feared his life would be in danger and they can't accept that, a position Police Capt. Allaire was again rewhich English yachtsmen do not uncalled to the stand, and, as on yesterderstand. In fact, the America's Cup day, denied all knowledge of blackmail portunity.

If refused, special meeting unnecessary. Guarantee that Squadron would not demand cup failing agreement on receipt intended.

Identical with Dunraven's proposal, June 24, Identical with Dunraven's proposal, June 24, 1889. Please cable acceptance or refusal.

GRANT, Cowes.

the present rates has caused consternation among the small salcon-keepers. Predictions were made this merit rate shall be action of Mayor Schieron's Commissioners would furt the Republican party at the sext election. Will in first race eight months from receipt of divice from your Royal Tacht Squadon, that the sext election. It is also doisily agreed to, and Dunnavan's request for three weeks to be out after arrival, is granted.

Dupraven Syndicate.

LONDON, Dec. 20.-The greatest in-terest is manifested in yachting circles here in the result of the America's Cup Committee meeting to-day. Dunraven, Lord Lonsdale, Lord Wolver posed American Association, was held ment resumed its work to-day. Mayor- ton and Henry McCalmont, who has at the Fifth Avenue Hotel to-day. All elect Strong and his Secretary, Job E. just had a magnificent 1,000-ton steam Discussing the prospects of a contest, Lord Lonsdale said

"If the New York Yacht Club does not accept the offer, which we have after long consultation been able to Pantata." make, there will not be another international yacht race for a generation, "It is true that, if the Royal Yacht Squadron is unable to bring about match, the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, the second of the English yacht clubs, or, perhaps, the Royal Dorset Yacht Club, also a very prominent organization may challenge, because

"In my opinion the Americans are acting in a childish and unsportsmanlike Committee this morning was Walter S. manner. We are doing everything we Harrison, a builder, who swore he had can to arrange a race. We absolutely fail to understand why the American

"The real reason, in my mind, for Then an affidavit was read from H. their best form of yacht, and they re-member that upon the occasion of He swore that Inspector Williams promthe last series of races for the America's ised him a position on the regular de-Cup we were really entitled to one tective force if he would report to the

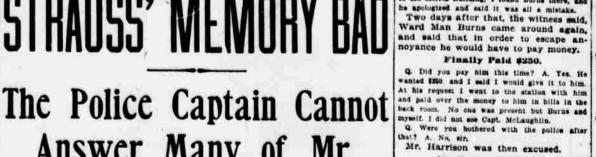

Mrs. Strauss, wife of the Police Cap- | him put through a searching examina It is said the Senators will not agree to this, and as a consequence the doctor ; husband regarding the testimony she and the Committee are said to be at Dr. Parkhurst contends that such an examination as Mr. Goff proposes to hold would be simply a whitewash for the Superintendent It was just noon when Mr. Goff called for Witness Walter S, Harrison. He also asked for Capt. Martens, who came Witness Walter S Harrison. Mr. Harrison said he was a builder, at 29 Broadway, and had contracts for erecting Government buildings. He said he had built the Morris building, at Broad and Beaver streets, and got a permit for constructing the vault under the eldewalk from the Department of the Old Slip station, when Capt. Mc-

Implientes Williams.

Mr. Moss then asked leave to introluce some evidence in the form of an attidavit, as the witness was out of this State. It was the statement of H. M. Stannought, a former agent of the So ciety for the Prevention of Crime, and who, Mr. Moss said, had been corrupted by the police authorities and had mad WIFE ALSO A WITNESS.

Stannought's confession was to the effect that he had been making daily reports of his work for the Society to aspector Williams at Police Headquarers. Mr. Moss described how he had seems there is other and more i obtained this confession from the agent, who has sworn to it in the presence of imself and Dr Parkhurst.

Every attempt had been made to se- will appear before that body to-de cure the attendance of Stannought, but give the Senators a chanhe had fied, as he feared he would incur him before the Police Board does. the ill-will of the police authorities and that his life would be in danger.

bringing out the foregoing facts. Stannought said in his statement that his first interview with Inspector Willin August, 1893. He was introduced to forward when his name was called.

While he was engaged in the building he was visited by Ward Man Burns, of CAPT. ALLAIRE AND POLICEMAN INTERMANN.

Ward Man Demanded Pay.

"Burns wanted me to pay money for the privilege of putting up the bridge over the sidewark, and when I demurred and said I had already obtained a permit he said that did not make any difference, that I would have to pay something to the Police Department, and he would look after it.

"I refused to pay him anything and went on to build my bridge. One morning when I came downtown I learned that my foreman had been arrested or the ground that the law had been vio the Tombs to see the case out. When the Inspector by "Frank," a stenog-my foremen was arraigned he merely grapher, and had an interview with showed the Judge his permit and was grapher, and had an interview with discharged.

the arrest, and he told me it was in accordance with the orders he had rebers of the Committee. He objects to ceived." having Supt. Byrnes testify merely as a supert in police matters, and wants Q What happened then? A. After I went back that my foreman had been arrested on the ground that the law had been violated.

The made me mad, and I went up to MAYOR FISHER, OF GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.

William H Hale's letter:

Waystaff sent the following let to the District-Attorney, with a configuration of Mr. Hale's letter:

Promised a Place on the Force. The Inspector promised to live him place on the regular force of detectives if he would give information regarding the work being done by the Society.

PRICE ONE CENT.

WESTERVELT'S LUCK

The Police Captain's Trial Again Put Off for a Time.

Evidence 's Not Yet in Pre

The trial of Police Capt. We did not go on before the Police Commissioners to-day, as arranged.

business on hand. Instead, the Captain has I poenaed by the Lexow Co

The principal witness in the that his life would be in danger.

The affidavit was read after Mr. Moss spent most of his time during had made a preliminary statement few years writing policy slips

Justice Ingraham Postpones tence Till Next Wedne Lawyer John Vincent appeared in the Court of Oyer and Terminer this maring and presented a letter from its Shafer asking that the sentencing of the Capt. Stephenson be postponed from comorrow until Wednesday, Dat. Mr. Shafer said he had engage which would prevent his attendance of Court to-morrow.

Justice Ingraham granted Mr. Shafer's request.

DOES IT FAVOR FELLOWS?

Senator Lincon Off to Albany with His Report to the Governor.

(Special to The Reening World.)
KINGSTON DEPOT. N. Y., Dec.
Ex-Senator Linson left this city for bany at 12.15 this afternoon. He took bany at 12.15 this afternoon. He took with him his report in the District Attorney Fellows matter, which he will lay fore the Governor as soon as he reaches his destination.

To a representative of "The Evening World" Mr. Linson refused absolutely to give a summary of his report. He said he thought it would not be proper to make public any part of the report before the Governor saw it.

it is thought that the report is in favor of Col. Fellows.

HALE WANTS FELLOWS'S AID.

A Formal Notice of the Next Diver Hearing Sent to Him.

Following the suggestions of Ch Judge Daly, of the Court of Comm Pleas, Lawyer William H. Hale to-day pending against Police Justice Patrick Divver, the trial of which is still un-

Figure 1. Description of the rules adopted by this course 1 hereby request yes to transmit to the Instructional Course of the city and county of New York Copies of the rules for proceeding in the removed of Patrick Diver from office and of the allegations heretofore filed with you in this proceeding.

Attornsy for the taxpayers.